City working on UDAG

By BILL MILLIGAN
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Downtown rehabilitation money, if approved by the federal government, could arrive in February.

Urban Development Action Grant funds are available to cities meeting the federal criteria, said Jack Flynn, a UDAG public information officer in Washington.

Economically distressed cities are aided by UDAGs.

TWO THINGS help determine the success of a city's grant application, Flynn said.

An application must be filed with Chicago's UDAG office no later than Nov. 30 and it must show the project will be done, he said.

"It must include an audited financial statement from developers and banks' letter of credit," Flynn said.

THE CITY'S Economic Development Council began work on a development strategy Monday, said City Coordinator Alan Ortals.

If an application is accepted, it must then meet three of seven UDAG requirements, Flynn said.

Granite City meets six: "A region's population must not have grown more than 29.9 percent during 1983-84, Granite City is recorded as having a 10.1 percent population loss in the period.

"Housing stock must consist of 20.6 percent or more pre-1940 buildings. More than 39 percent of Granite City's housing is pre-1940.

"The area's per capita income increase must not exceed the national average. Per capita income rose $5,328 in Granite City during the last few years. The national average increased $5,467.

"The nation's employment level rose 3.4 percent while Granite City showed a 35.3 percent decrease in manufacturing jobs.

"That resulted in 13.4 percent unemployment in Granite City; the national average is 7 percent.

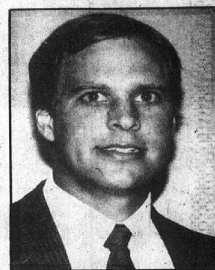

"Granite City has a 13.4 percent labor surplus; the national average is 7 percent.

The only qualification this area failed to meet was connected to the poverty level.

NATIONWIDE, cities average 12.3 percent of the population living below the poverty level. In Granite City, that figure is 10.7 percent, Flynn said.

Federal law requires $2.50 private investment for every $1 of UDAG assistance. Because grant competition is intense, Flynn said, the average is nearer to $5 in private investment to $1 assistance.

"A decision will be reached by the end of January, with an announcement in early February," Flynn said of the UDAG application review process.

Something different for Christmas? You'll pay!

By SUSAN SIGNAIGO-WEICH
Staff writer

They'll be wrestling in the toy aisles, spending cash like trash, and pushing and shoving in mile-long lines — but it's all in the spirit of Christmas.

With the Christmas shopping season officially getting under way Friday, many shoppers may be frustrated by at least one person on their list who seems to have everything.

TO PREVENT this problem, the Neiman-Marcus catalog offers some unique items.

But beware. For Neiman-Marcus items, you'll have to pay Neiman-Marcus prices.

For the "perfect couple" on your list, why not purchase a perfect pair of yellow diamonds? Neiman-Marcus offers a rectangular, starburst-cut 56 ct. diamond and its mate, a 21 ct. pear-shaped natural yellow diamond for just $2 million.

The lucky owner may have the diamonds set whichever way he chooses.

FOR THE PERSON who's particular about his appearance, why not give him a replica of his own face?

Artist Willis Shalit will make a life mask of the person on your list for a mere $700.

A giftgiver, eh? For the health conscience person, there's a one-week vacation offered at The Greenhouse, in Arlington, Texas.

A TYPICAL DAY at The Greenhouse begins with breakfast in bed, followed by beauty consultation, treatment and exercise. Following an informal dinner, guests will gather for after-dinner entertainment. All this for only $2,625.

A music lover might enjoy the "Dirty Dozen," a marching jazz band that would be great entertainment for Christmas Day.

Exclusive of lodging and transportation, a three-hour performance by the group is $6,000.

A RESTFUL SNOOZE is guaranteed for the person who likes to sleep, with a mattress set stuffed with at least $1 million in shredded U.S. currency. Mattress sets for a queen-sized bed are $1,000.

A deal at twice the price?

For the golf-fanatic, a chance to play in the first annual Neimahr Marcus Golf Classic would be the best choice. The tournament, which runs May 23 through 30, will be played at the Kapalua Bay Resort, Maui, Hawaii.

THE TRIP INCLUDES six nights accommodation at the Kapalua Bay Hotel, a Hawaiian luau, a helicopter sightseeing tour and a romantic dinner sail. The price of this gift is $2,355.

For that price, you shouldn't have (See PAY, Page 9A)

Improved city entrances goal in Granite City

By SUSAN SIGNAIGO-WEICH
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Improved city entrances are planned by the City Council.

A resident engineer will be hired to work on the plan, the council voted Tuesday.

The plan is to improve traffic control and make the city more attractive, especially to businesses considering locating here, said acting City Engineer Ed Schulze.

"THERE ARE SOME entrances to the city that are pretty 'scudsy,'" he said. "I think every mayor since Leonard Davis (1949-65 tenure) has been interested in doing something to improve the appearance of them."

The first road to be improved will be East 23rd Street, from Monroe Street to Nantuxki Road. Work will include widening and resurfacing the road and placing concrete curbs and sidewalks.

Aldermen agreed to hire a resident engineer from the Illinois Department of Transportation for seven months. The $16,000 salary (See ENTER, Page 9A)

Drug use taking new twist; now it's frogs for fun

By BILL MILLIGAN
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Don't look now, but drug abuse has taken a bizarre new twist, according to Lee Allen, of Drugs of Abuse Inc.

Imagine licking a frog that has just been dipped into boiling water. That's the latest thing, according to Allen.

It seems the frog excretes an oily protective substance when dipped. Allen said the "slime" has a chemical property which gives anyone desperate enough to try it a temporary high.

"IT DOESN'T kill the frog," Allen said. "They dip them 10-15 times before they kill it."

Though the treatment of the frog is inhumane, Allen said it wasn't as horrifying as the drug-related deaths he's seen among teenagers since he began his work in the early '70s.

"They get things around the house, like spray aerosols, and sniff them," Allen said. "The stuff coats their lungs and they collapse. They put garbage bags over their head and sniff glue."

"IT'S CRAZY," he said.

PARENTS who suspect their children have become involved with drugs have a new ally in Police Chief William Harris.

BOILED FROG

Harris and his department are now active in organizing drug and alcohol education talks.

They urge every person or organization interested in beginning a program to contact the department at 2330 Madison Ave.

A NATIONWIDE survey indicates many children first encounter drugs at age 12, according to a release issued by Harris this week.

"IT'S DRUGS here in Granite City, believe it or not," Harris said.

"Your children know it's here." The release listed some of the tipoffs parents might look for. Often, the following may point to drug abuse:

• When children come home saying a friend gave them a pill that made them feel funny.

• Parents find suspicious-looking items hidden among clothing in a dresser.

• A child's behavior begins to change. He or she may become sullen or less outgoing than before.

Harris believes the behavior can be changed. Through his department's new "Drugs of Abuse" program, Harris hopes to make the entire community aware of the danger.

THE PROGRAM will include drug and paraphernalia displays, slide presentations, viewing and sound equipment.

The main tool of the program is a pamphlet titled Drugs of Abuse which pictures of abusable substances, and tells how to recognize those who abuse them.

Police will begin contacting area businesses and organizations, in an attempt to gain sympathy and support for the program, Harris said.

THE BOOKLET, Drugs of Abuse, will be available at upcoming drug seminars and the Police Department.

"This program has long been needed here in Granite City," Harris said. "I'm excited about it because it promises to improve the quality of life here."

"This program requires two things to be successful," he said. "We need the money to purchase the tools and a community concern to learn the facts."

Reviews & Previews In the News

Township upholds staff raises

A LAST-DITCH EFFORT failed Nov. 19 to stop raises in the township assessor's office. Action to delete the raises was defeated 6-9. Trustees met with Assessor Darlene Laub two weeks ago in an effort to postpone the raises until negotiations with city employees end, but she declined.

GC civil defense director named

THE NEW CIVIL DEFENSE director for Granite City is Dick Ervay, owner of Ervay's Restaurant, 2220 Pontoon Road. Ervay was appointed Nov. 19 to take over for Harold Mayfield, who resigned as head of civil defense Oct. 31. Alderman Sam Whitmer, Ward 2, voted against confirming the appointment of Ervay. He said earlier he feels Mayfield was forced out of office for political reasons.

Old Newsboy hit by car

A MAN SELLING NEWSPAPERS for Old Newsboys Day was struck and injured by an automobile at the intersection of 23rd Street and Madison Avenue shortly before 8 a.m. Nov. 21. E. David Whitesell, 70, of 4004 Veseli Ave. suffered a fractured left leg and lacerations to the back of his head.

Quote of the Week — Sam Whitmer

"SOME PEOPLE went to sleep on this council floor and they're just now waking up." This quote from Granite City Trustee Sam Whitmer describes his feelings on a line-item breakdown of salaries in the township assessor's office. Action to delete raises for eight assessor employees from the budget failed Nov. 19.

CHARLES, IF YOU WANT MORE ATTENTION FROM THE PRESS... JUST SAY SO.

Elephant loses trunk

How did you "feel" about it when you heard the other day that an elephant in the Kansas City zoo, reaching for an apple through a hydraulic gate, had 10 inches of her trunk cut off?

To whatever degree, you suffered with her.

Now, it is true that in the Tanzania outbreak elephants suffer hunger, disease, old age and eventual death from the teeth of hyenas—but that's different.

And what makes the one suffering different from the other is that one is unnatural, untimely and unnecessary.

In essence, you can comprehend compassion for animal anguish only when you realize it is "not who suffers but how."

Sociologically, when cruelty to animals is rationalized, it is less significant what happens to them than what happens to us.

The FBI devoted its entire Law Enforcement Bulletin, this issue, to "Violent Crime."

From the summary of this comprehensive study I quote: "Many of offenders reported a history of sadistic behavior toward animals, such as killing, maiming and threatening small animals."

Paul Harvey

The Third Reich's tolerance for ultimate cruelty developed gradually. It began with the animal experiments justified by Wehrmacht weapons research and ended in the forced march to the ovens.

Thus the same nation which produced Bach, Beethoven and Brahms was deaf to the screams from Auschwitz, Dachau and Buchenwald.

Again, it is perhaps less significant what cruelty does to the victims than what it does to the perpetrators.

Significantly, two recent instances of misuse of animals in the name of medical science—at the University of Pennsylvania and allegedly at the University of California at Riverside—reflected state institutions violating their own state laws.

Now, due to the evidence and persistence of responsible humane organizations and their supporters, the "mad scientists" are in violation of federal law as well.

Infinite resources have been committed to the preservation of certain species—to prevent certain birds and animals from passing into extinction.

Worthy as that objective may be, that is not "humanitarianism."

The humanitarian is aware that 50 species of something disappear from the face of the earth every year. The humanitarian is NOT opposed to killing the mouse in his house. He will kill that mouse as quickly and as mercifully as possible. It is when he chooses to kill it any other way that we know he is sick.

The fight for the preservation of the snail darter is phony and amoral, satisfying only to somebody's scientific curiosity, as long as the ecological crusader makes no contribution to our nation's understaffed, underfunded animal shelters.

We must discourage by example and prohibit by law any and all "cruelty" period!

Whenever, wherever, by whomever and for whatever reason.

Atomic waste not only disposal problem here

Atomic waste is not the only thing you can't dispose of in America.

"I would like to purchase a 25-inch TV set."

"You came to the right place. Video Simon has the best video bargains in the city."

"What do I do with my used one?"

"Anything you like. We never tell a customer what to do with his TV set."

"Will you give me a trade-in?"

"You're kidding. Do you know how many TV sets in the U.S. are thrown out every day?"

"Would you haul it away if I buy the new one?"

"I may be simple, but I'm not crazy. Thousands and thousands of people are stuck with aging TV sets. They can't sell them, they can't give them away, and they can't throw them out. Garbage men don't even want them."

"So what does one do with the old set?"

"The same thing you do with nuclear waste. Find a deep hole in South Carolina and bury it."

"I can't even lift my TV."

"Then soak it with gasoline and set a match to it."

"In the living room?"

"If it will make you feel better, do it in the kitchen. Look mister, there is something you have to understand. The greatest thing about America is that you can buy the newest appliances known to man. The worst thing about it is that you can't get rid of the old ones. Once you own a fridge, a washing machine or a TV set, you're stuck with it for the rest of your life. That's why you see so many of them on people's back porches."

"I have a mind to keep my old TV and have it fixed. How much would it cost?"

"Five hundred and fifty dollars."

"You haven't even seen it yet."

"Every TV set costs five hundred and fifty dollars to fix."

"For that kind of money, I could buy a new one."

"I know. That's why we charge five hundred and fifty dollars to repair the old one."

"Perhaps I could donate my TV set to a senior citizens home or an orphanage."

"I wouldn't try it. They've been stung with too many second-hand sets, and they're not about to accept a used one. Why don't you just put yours in the attic and forget about it like everybody else does?"

"We don't have any room. Our old stove is in the attic and, come to think of it, so is the sink that came with the house."

"Listen, I'm busy. Do you want the TV or don't you?"

"Yes, I do if you could just give me some idea how we can move the other one out."

"If I could tell you that I'd be able to sell twice as many new TV sets."

"What if I told you I'd be willing to pay to get rid of the old set. How much would you charge?"

"Where do you live?"

"Wesley Heights, off New Mexico and Cathedral."

"It will cost exactly five hundred and fifty dollars."

"But that's as much as you'll charge me to fix it!"

"Mister, we don't make any money hauling away sets. We just do it to beautify America."

Journal, electricians seek best displays for holiday; 16 to win awards in Illinois

Every year, Christmas lights on homes, churches and schools add to the festive atmosphere of the holiday season.

And this year the Suburban Journals and the St. Louis Electrical Board are joining forces to highlight this time honored tradition by re-establishing an area-wide outdoor Christmas lighting contest.

It's been more than a decade since area residents could enter their creations in a competition. The 1985 contest will be bigger than ever before.

No fewer than 40 displays will be selected for area-wide honors. Local winners and their displays will be featured in the Suburban Journals Christmas Day issues.

Four categories of awards will be given in each of 10 geographical regions throughout the metropolitan area. Sixteen awards will be given in Metro East, 12 in St. Louis and St. Louis County and eight in Jefferson and St. Charles counties.

Three categories are open to local residents based on the expenditure dedicated to the display — Class I: up to $300; Class II: $300-$750; Class III: more than $750.

Churches and schools will enter their displays in Class IV.

The minimum entry donation will be $5. (All contest proceeds will go to the Salvation Army's "Tree of Lights" campaign.)

A clip-out entry coupon appears on this page. Even if you haven't planned your display, mail in your entry by the Dec. 6 deadline.

Please be sure to fill it out completely and send it to the:

St. Louis Electrical Board
8514 Eager Road
Brentwood 63144.

Judges will be viewing contest entries beginning Dec. 11 and all displays should be lighted between the hours of 6 and 11 p.m.

The 1985 Christmas Lighting Contest chairman is Richard Schwab, vice president, secretary treasurer of Superior Insulating Tape Co., others on the Lighting Contest Committee are Norman Raab of Union Electric Co., Norman Krause and Ed Neidel of Sachs Electric Co., Gene Sanders of Sanders Electrical Sales and Charles Kaufman of Schneider Electric Co.

53 honored as state scholars from Granite City

By BILL MILLIGAN
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — More than 50 Granite City youths were among 14,000 Illinois high school seniors who qualified for State Scholar honors this year.

Many of the students will qualify for the Illinois Merit Recognition Scholarship program.

Of this year's scholars, 53 are from Granite City. The Illinois Scholarship Commission (ISC) released the names of the scholars last week.

The students took the American College Testing (ACT) assessment, or the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) between Jan. 1 and June 30, 1985.

State Scholars are determined by a combination of test scores and rank-in-class. Awardees receive a certificate of achievement from the ISC. There is no monetary award involved.

Among those selected were: Lewanna Amberger, Chris Ashmore, Joseph Achley, Paula

Christmas arts, craft fair slated

GRANITE CITY — A Christmas Arts and Crafts Fair is planned Saturday, Dec. 7, at Moose Lodge 272, on 10th and Adams streets.

The fair will last from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Exhibit tables will cost $10.

Persons interested in renting space may contact Rich Hasky, 451-0547; Mert Castellini, 452-5556, or the Moose Lodge at 876-6010.

Church holds music program

Bethesda Baptist Church, 3035 Nameok Drive, is sponsoring a Sunbeam Band Roundup on Dec. 1 at the church.

A Sunbeam was a child who attended Sunbeam Missionary meetings during the 1950s and 1960s and was a preschooler or primary student at the time, according to a church spokesman.

Anyone in that category is invited to be a guest at the 10:30 a.m. service, Ivy Sullivan, Sunbeam teacher, said.

All former members of the group are being urged to bring their family for the recognition and special service, according to the Rev. Luther Abbott, pastor.

ARE YOU OVERLOOKING THE OBVIOUS?

You say you're looking for an investment, but you don't know where to turn?

You'd like to maximize your hard-earned dollars, but you don't want to invest a fortune—just $500 to begin with plus an extra $100 now and then.

Besides, you don't always have the time or desire to follow market trends. You'd rather have a professionally managed investment.

And it should be flexible. Your investment has to fit present financial goals and adapt as things change.

Most of all, it has to feel comfortable. You want an investment that is suitable and convenient.

The answer is here! Your investment alternative is available right where you bank. Its name: GRANIT Mutual Fund Group.*

Surprised? You shouldn't be. When you think back to the number of times you've found the answer at your bank, it makes perfect sense.

Ask about it. For more information about GRANIT Mutual Funds, contact your banker or call 800-328-1375 (800-247-0317 in MN). You will receive a prospectus with more complete information on each fund. Read it carefully before investing in any GRANIT Fund.

Tentative multiplier issued

Madison County has been issued a tentative property assessment equalization factor of 1, according to J. Thomas Johnson, director of the Illinois Department of Revenue.

The property assessment equalization factor, often called the "multiplier," is the method used to achieve uniform property assessments among counties.

"Equalization is particularly important because some of the state's 6,600 local taxing districts overlap into two or more counties (e.g. school districts, college districts, fire protection districts). If there was no equalization among counties, substantial inequities among taxpayers with comparable properties would result," Johnson said.

State law requires real estate property to be assessed at one-third of its market value. Farm property is assessed differently, with farm homesites and dwelling subject to regular assessing and equalization procedures but with farmland and buildings assessed according to standards based on productivity.

The multiplier is determined annually for each county by comparing the sale price of individual properties sold over the past three years to the assessed value placed on those properties by the assessor and Board of Review.

If this three-year average level of assessment is one-third of market value, the equalization factor will be 1. If the average level of assessment is greater than one-third of market value, the factor will be less than 1. And if the average level of assessment is less than one-third of market value, the equalization factor will be greater than 1.

Assessments in Madison County are at 32.88 percent of market value, based on sales of properties in 1982, 1983 and 1984.

The factor currently being assigned is for 1985 taxes, payable in 1986.

Last year's equalization factor for the county also was 1.

The tentative multiplier is subject to change if the county Board of Review takes actions which significantly affect assessments or if local officials or others can present data showing that the Department of Revenue's estimates of the average level of assessments in the county should be adjusted.

A public hearing on the tentative multiplier will be held probably in December.

A change in a multiplier would not mean total property tax bills will increase or decrease. Tax bills are determined by local taxing bodies when they request money each year to provide services to local citizens.

If the amount requested by the taxing districts is no greater than the amount received in the previous year, then total property taxes will not increase even if assessments may have increased, Johnson said.

The assessed value of an individual property determines what portion of the tax burden a specific taxpayer will assume. That individual's portion of tax responsibility is not changed by the multiplier.

DAV reviews veterans benefits

The Washington office of the Disabled American Veterans has been busy responding to key issues before the Senate Veterans' Affairs Committee, Robert "Bob" Kennerly said.

Commander of DAV Chapter 53, he told members at the November gathering of the status of legislation affecting them and their families.

National legislative director John Heilman reminded the Senate committee that an administration draft proposal had failed to include a cost-of-living increase for those receiving the "K" award. This is a special monthly award, presently $62, paid to veterans who have a service-connected loss, or loss of use, of a single arm, leg or certain other body organs or functions. The last increase in this award was in 1979.

A proposal the DAV is opposed to is a change in accounting procedures that would result in increases being rounded down to the nearest whole dollar, rather than up or down to the nearest whole dollar.

Bob Pine reported that he may need to increase the hours he is at the DAV home each Wednesday if the present number of veterans seeking help continues. His hours will remain 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. for the present. He reported that Alvin Markel and Bill Knucha remain hospitalized and that P.D. Knicker is deceased.

Joe Hefferty announced the Oct. 31 membership was 327 and the goal is 458.

Larry Lockhart said the chapter received a memorial donation from the 6th Armored Division in the name of Major General Robert W. Grow with the request that the money be used for service work only.

A donation to the Granite City Council of Seniors was approved. Lunch was prepared and served by George Krpan and Harold Menzel.

Bookmobile design contest held for Granite City's students

GRANITE CITY — The Public Library is sponsoring a contest to find a new graphic design or illustration to be painted on the library's bookmobile.

The contest is open to elementary, junior high, and high school students currently attending Granite City schools.

A $50 U.S. savings bond will be awarded to the winner in each of the three student categories. A $100 U.S. savings bond will be awarded to the overall winner of the combined categories. However, the use of any of the contest designs on the bookmobile will be at the discretion of the library's board of trustees.

Ideas should be illustrated in a drawing or sketch in either black and white or color. The size should be no smaller than 8x11 inches and no larger than 28x22. Any art medium may be used.

All ideas submitted must be original and must not contain any copyrighted material.

Entries will be judged on the idea expressed, more than on artistic ability. There is no limit to the number of entries each student may submit.

Entries may be delivered to either the main library, 2001 Delmar Ave., or the branch library, 2020 Johnson Road. Entries may also be mailed to the main library, however, if mailed, the word "contest" should appear on the front of the envelope.

Entries must arrive at the library no later than Monday, Dec. 16, 1985. The winners will be notified on Friday, Dec. 20.

The following information should be put on the back of each entry: the student's name, address, phone number, age, grade, and the school he or she attends. This information must not appear anywhere on the front of the entry.

Additional information about the contest may be obtained by phoning the main library at 452-6238 or Edward M. Schroeder, contest chairman, at 451-1869.

Noon Day Opti-Mrs. honor members

Birthday honors were accorded to Mrs. Wilbert Engelke, Mrs. Douglas Little and Mrs. Lawrence McCauley by members of the Noon Day Opti-Mrs. Club last week.

The group met in the home of Mrs. David Parrish, 2544 Waterman Ave. for luncheon. Co-hostesses were Mrs. John Kirchoff and Mrs. B.C. O'Neil.

Mrs. Victor Anderson, club president, read a letter from Kathryn Burns, who is enrolled at Deaconess College of Nursing and is sponsored by the organization.

Plans were finalized for the December meeting with Mesdames David Giese, Elmer Branding, Norman Hall and Harry Odum as hostesses.

The remainder of the day was spent playing card games with prizes going to Mesdames Anderson, Little, McCauley and Ernest Vehl. Also present were Mesdames Richard Buenger, Randall Irwin, Merl Jennings, David John and Carl Rant.

'Try to be thankful for you' subject

"Try Being Thankful for You," taken from an article by Norman Vincent Peale, was the subject of a devotional presented by Thelma Phelps for the Ruth Class of Calvary Baptist Church.

Lorraine Thompson opened the session with prayer in the fellowship hall of the church. Pauline Weir, class teacher, conducted the discussion segment and officers were elected for the 1985-86 year.

They include: group leaders, Willa Reed and Elizabeth Phillips; group coordinator, Maxine Stamps; secretary, Nancy Dunlap; treasurer, Louella Probes; and nursing home project chairman, Lorraine Thompson.

Projects for November and December include collection of food for baskets for the needy, and visits to The Colonades Nursing Home.

Plans were made for the class yule party Dec. 10 at the church. Hostess devotions will be given by Irene Kessler. Lorraine Thompson will direct the games.

Prizes awarded during a social hour were won by Thelma Phelps and Louella Probes. Refreshments were served by Nancy Dunlap to those named and to Phyllis Knight and Mary Hoover.

Mexican Commission will prepare Christmas baskets

Christmas baskets and an election were topics as the Mexican Honorary Commission met here. Members were reminded that an election will be held at the December meeting for the four trustee officers whose terms expire that month. Nominees for the offices are Gordon Bailey, Jim Decourcy, Ruth Elliott, Doreen Gray, Bob Robles Jr. and Joe Valencia.

Donald Valencia announced his co-chairman on the Christmas basket committee will be Joe Valencia. The MHC membership presented a check to Donald Valencia to supplement the canned goods and toy donations from members for holiday baskets. The Auxiliary also gave a donation.

Joe Valencia was named chairman of a Christmas party for members and their children. The event will be held Dec. 8, with dinner at 1 p.m. and entertainment following. Santa will present gifts to the children and there will be pinatas filled with candy and pennies for youngsters.

Pres. Robert Robles Sr. announced the Granite City Scholarship

Foundation has elected officers for the new year and Charles King will again serve as president. Plans are being made for the Joe Gonzales Scholarship Dance to be held March 8, and "Tapestry" has again been signed to play for the dance.

Alyce Donaldson, chairman of health and welfare, announced that Linda Garcia and Joey Donaldson are no longer in the hospital. Also brought to the attention of members was the plight of an 11-month-old girl recently diagnosed as having cerebral palsy. A donation was approved to help finance treatment and medications.

The Auxiliary made a donation for the Christmas party, baskets for senior citizens and pinatas for the Christmas party. It will provide a new refrigerator for the MHC kitchen.

Robles said Dec. 8 is the final date for bringing in canned goods and toys for the baskets. Dinner was served by Lily Valencia and Alice Nomm. Hostesses for the December meeting are Sandy Weathers, Erna Kientzle and Alyce Donaldson.

Holiday home protection tips given

With the holiday season approaching, the Madison County Sheriff's Department has issued tips for people to help protect their homes and possessions, especially in the rural areas.

A spokesman said, "Thefts and burglaries increase this time of the year and neighbors should help each other by watching their houses and keep on the lookout for suspicious automobiles in the area. Sometimes these cars are watching homes with the intention of burglarizing or may be in the process of entering a home."

"Call the department immediately and try to give a good description of the car, color and license plate numbers if possible, so we can do our job to help protect your homes."

"When you buy merchandise for holiday gifts, be sure you do so with a reputable dealer. If you are approached by persons offering products at a low cost, remember: they may have stolen the item from one of your neighbors."

"Be sure to call the department if you think the merchandise is stolen. We need your cooperation but do not want you to try and stop a suspicious person."

"If the need to reach the sheriff's department should arise, the number is 1-692-4433."

3 extradited for robbery

Samuel L. Poteet, 21, of Coello, Bobby Shawn Webb, 18, of 705 Madison Ave., Madison, and Lee Alan Thomas, 20, of 4162 Melrose

Ave. were arrested by Granite City police Nov. 14 on Grundy, Tenn., warrants alleging armed robbery. The three have been extradited to Tennessee.

Trio's arrest reportedly clears 22 cases

The arrest of three men by Granite City police has cleared up cases in the city, county and state of Tennessee, authorities said Friday.

The three were arrested here on Tennessee warrants.

Police believe the three were also involved in 18 burglaries and thefts in Granite City and three Madison County cases. No burglary charges were filed due to the out-of-state prosecution.

Some property has been recovered in the burglary and theft cases, said Police Chief Bill Harris. Police are currently contacting persons who reported the property taken.

WINDOW OF HOME BROKEN, SHOT FIRED AT SUSPECT

Jason Clark Sr., of 2826 W. 20th St. told police Nov. 24 someone threw a bottle through a window into his home and then started kicking the front door.

Clark grabbed a 12 gauge shotgun and yelled at the vandal, who ran away. Clark said he fired a shot at the man but missed.

TVS, MICROWAVE TAKEN

Carol Richter, 2412 Bromley Ave., said Nov. 22 a burglar entered her home through a window and took a 25-inch television set, a 19-inch color TV and a microwave oven. The house was ransacked by the intruder.

SILVER DOLLARS TAKEN

Kenneth Little, 1021 Cleveland Blvd., said Nov. 22 someone took 200 silver dollars from his coin collection. Little found the empty containers for the coins in a crawl space under his house.

WEDDING RINGS STOLEN

Dwayne Roberts of 2122 Bryan Ave. told police Nov. 24 someone entered his home and took two wedding bands and a stethoscope.

COSTUME JEWELRY STOLEN

Ruth Roland, owner of Ruth's store at 1415 Niedringhaus Ave., told police Nov. 23 someone entered her new shop and took some costume jewelry. An inventory of missing items is being compiled.

PEDIGREE PUPPY MISSING

Theresa Pike, 2207 Iowa St., reported Nov. 23 someone took a 5-month-old pedigree male boxer puppy from her backyard. The dog had been chained to a clothesline.

WOMAN SERVED WARRANT

Neva Y. Powderly, 2714 Myrtle Ave. was arrested Nov. 24 on a St. Clair County warrant. She also was charged with driving without a valid driver license. The arrest took place at Rock Road and W. 21st Street. She was released on $200 cash bail.

ORDER VIOLATION CHARGED

Larry D. Naevie, 39, of 3901 Village Lane Apartments, was charged Nov. 24 with a violation of an order of protection. John Naevie said he knocked her down and then twisted her arm.

Massa is filing for bankruptcy

Collinsville attorney James Massa has filed for bankruptcy, stalling legal action designed to recover $16 million allegedly taken from the now-defunct Stix & Co. stock brokerage in St. Louis.

In a petition to the federal bankruptcy court in East St. Louis, Massa lists debts of $18 million.

Massa is serving a 20-year prison sentence in connection with the Stix & Co. stock brokerage scheme in 1981.

It was indicated in the bankruptcy petition that Massa may file a malpractice suit against F. Lee Bailey, the nationally known attorney who defended him. Massa was convicted of mail, wire and securities fraud and conspiracy.

His bankruptcy petition was submitted Nov. 8 by Collinsville attorney William "Chuck" Evers. A lawsuit filed against Massa by the court-appointed receiver for Stix, Harry Moline, had been scheduled to come to trial last week. Evers said. The case was removed from the docket when the bankruptcy petition was filed.

A first meeting of Massa's creditors will be held in December, Evers said.

Debts listed by Massa include $1 million in federal taxes, $200,000 in state taxes and $100,000 in other taxes owed. Property listed by Massa includes $80,000 in an individual retirement account, $2,000 in wearing apparel, and $5,000 he believes he is due from the breakup of his law partnership with William Elbeaud.

PEDESTRIAN FOUND INJURED

Carl Glen Dixon, 51, of 2127 14th St. was found hurt in an alley by police Nov. 21, the apparent victim of a hit-and-run accident in which he was struck by a vehicle. Dixon was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center by city ambulance.

MUSIC STORE BURGLARIZED

An electric guitar was removed from Fornazewski's Music Store, 3007 Nameoki Road, Nov. 22. The burglar threw a brick through a plate glass window to gain entry, and the brick damaged an electric organ.

CAHOKIA MOUND COUNCIL OF THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA elected council officers at a business meeting on Nov. 21. Those to serve for the 1986 year are, from left, Don W. Kassing, president of the council, Gertrude Luebben, program vice president, and Ronald Luebben, council commissioner.

Don Kassing heads Scouts

During the annual business meeting of the Cahokia Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America, members elected Don W. Kassing, president of the Granite City Council, to serve as council president for 1986.

Elected to serve with him were Gertrude Luebben, Granite City, program vice president; Louis Bobka, Collinsville, vice president of membership relationships; John McDonald, Granite City, treasurer; and Ronald Luebben, Granite City, council commissioner.

The Cahokia Mound Council, a member agency of the Tri Cities Area United Way, offers the program of the Boy Scouts of America to all youths in the Quad-City area as well as other portions of southern Madison County and the Greenville area in Bond County.

The council locally serves 1,823 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers and there are 461 adult volunteers.

At the meeting the following were named to serve on the executive board of the council: Maurice Dailey, Wilbert Engleke, Henry D. Karandjef, Ed Kasten, Dick Kerch, Bob Moske, Leo Schermer, James Seiz, Irvin Slate Jr. and Mary Tarpou of Granite City and Richard Spillers and John Lee III of Madison.

ROAD CONSTRUCTION money will be supplied by the Federal Highway Administration. Schulze said the E. 23rd improvements were put on a priority list in October by a branch of the FHWA. The work was requested in February 1983.

The FHWA branch group is comprised of Schulze and representatives from other cities, including Belleville, Collinsville and Cahokia. The committee selects improvements on Federal Aid to Urban System routes, which are usually feeders or connectors to major arteries.

ENGINEERING WORK work on E. 23rd Street is not expected to begin until spring, Schulze said.

If the access routes plan works on schedule, the next street on the list after E. 23rd will be Pontoon Road, he said.

Most other city entrances are FAHS routes and would be eligible for federal funds, Schulze said.

For the person who prefers a little horseplay, a polo pony from the Wayman Stables in San Antonio, Texas, might bring on a smile.

The horses come in chestnuts, browns, blacks, palominos, bays or grays. The horses even come in a matching pair. The price for a single pony is $17,500; a pair starts at $37,500.

CHILDREN WILL delight in an off-road version of the English Range Rover — a gasoline-powered jeep with a top speed of 20 m.p.h. Features include a tinted windshield, stereo, headlamps, upholstery and carpeting. The car can be purchased for $7,000.

For the corporate executive, a hard hat plated in 14 ct. gold is the perfect gift. The hat, monogrammed with the name or initials of the person on your list, costs $150.

FOR THE MYSTERY lover, there is a weekend at the Lygon Arms in England. Participants will play a part in solving a mystery. The trip, which includes three nights accommodation, a round-trip limousine ride from London, private bathrooms and meals, is $925 per person.

A stereo radio/tape player that floats is just the thing for someone who enjoys taking bubble baths or has his own hot tub. The stereo comes complete with a lamp and dual headphones for $169.

Well, was that any help? If not, you can always handle the person who has everything by sending him a Christmas card or crossing him off your list.

Chance-of-a-lifetime to see extraterrestrial visitor passing over Illinois

Halley's Comet isn't the spectacular sight it was in 1910 — on its last swing by Earth — but for most it will be a chance-of-a-lifetime sight. But if you want the best view possible in the country, go to Florida. At just about the time thousands of the nation's college students flood the Florida beaches for spring break, Halley's will be making its return trip through the Earth's view.

Frank C. Sanders, associate professor of physics at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, says the comet is now at a stage where people can see it with the aid of binoculars. Before long, it will be apparent to the naked eye.

Large telescopes have been capturing Halley's Comet on film for well over a year.

Sanders advises comet chasers to use binoculars instead of telescopes. That's because the whole comet and tail won't fit in a telescope lens' vision field because of the magnification.

Look now for a "hazy gray blob" drifting south of the Pleiades, a star cluster known as the Seven Sisters. With good viewing conditions, watchers may be able to make out a tail. Sanders explains that the "blob" is the comet's tail or coma, caused by gas surrounding the solid nucleus of the comet. As it approaches the sun, the gases are pushed back by solar radiation to form a tail.

Halley's Comet is named for British astronomer Edmund Halley who saw it in 1682 and eventually calculated its 76-year orbit cycle. He proposed that the comets viewed in 1531, 1607 and 1682 were one and the same.

"Before that, no one knew comets could be a recurrent event,"

Sanders said. "The periods between their sightings were so long, no one had suspected they could be the same ones."

Around Thanksgiving the comet will be closest to the Earth but that won't be its closest position to the sun or the best time to see it.

During the winter months of December, January and February the comet, visible in the evening sky, will be difficult to see as it closes in on the sun.

In early February, Sanders said, the comet will not be visible because the Earth will be on the opposite side of the sun.

The best time to look for the comet will be from early March to mid-April, when it will have the largest tail.

viewing of the comet will be in early March. Viewers should look for it in the morning, not the evening sky, because the comet will have crossed from one side of the sun to the other.

The best time to look for the comet will be from early March to mid-April, when it will have the largest tail.

On entertainment

In the new film, "Target," Gene Hackman plays a lumber and hardware dealer in Dallas. He drives a dirty, late model Chevrolet, runs a profitable business but is not quite so successful as a husband and father.

His wife (Gayle Hunnicutt) is an attractive, caring spouse who plays second fiddle to the lumber yard. His son (Matt Dillon) lives at home in name only, spending most of his time as a mechanic at a local stock car track and staying overnight at the homes of friends.

As "Target" opens, Hackman's wife is packing for a charter flight vacation to Europe with Paris as the eastbound gateway. At the last minute she pleads with Hackman to join her on the trip. He declines.

At the airport departure gate, she tells Hackman to use her time away from home to repair the relationship between Hackman and his son. As she puts it, "Do me a favor, break through to the kid."

But before any "break-throughs" can take place, a late night telephone call a few days later announces the grim news that mom is missing in Europe, having disappeared from her tour group more than 48 hours ago. Hackman and Dillon leave immediately for France to begin the search. Upon their arrival at Orly Airport in Paris, an attempt is made on Hackman's life. Hackman reveals to his son that he is a former CIA operative and that the disappearance of mom is most likely linked to the activities in his past. Thus a tale of international intrigue gets mixed with a story of one family's struggle to stay emotionally united.

"Target" is a stimulating film with an exciting finale and some outstanding automobile chase scenes in Europe. It does drag at times but overall this "Target" is right on, if not always a bull's eye.

That Was Then,

This Is Now
Emilio Estevez (the son of actor Martin Sheen) wrote the screenplay for and stars in "That Was Then, This Is Now." The film is a moody exposition of teen melodrama couched in a setting so tightly focused on the two central characters that it soon becomes a confining bore.

"That Was Then, This Is Now"

HARRY HAMM

has a promising start. Two young friends, both supposedly seniors in high school, are tough but good kids who are almost never out of each other's company. Estevez's character, Mark, moved in with his buddy Bryon (Craig Sheffer) and his mom after Mark's parents were killed during a domestic struggle. After growing up together in a rough east side neighborhood in Minneapolis their path of comradeship starts to alter when Bryon decides that his girl friend, Cathy, (Kim Delaney) is now the number one item in his life, with Mark a declining second.

The Disney Channel, The U.S. Marine Corps Reserve and your local cable company invite you to participate in this year's Toys for Tots campaign.
Every Christmas since 1947, Toys for Tots has been donating brand new, shiny toys to orphanages and needy children all over the U.S.
The Walt Disney Productions and Toys for Tots association goes back to 1948, when Walt Disney himself personally supervised the creation of the first Toys for Tots poster.
So it is in the spirit of Disney's long term relationship with this exceptional program that your local cable company and The Disney Channel invite you to participate in the 1985 Toys for Tots Drive coordinated by The U.S. Marine Corps Reserve.

Call today to see how you can give the gifts that make memories.
Give The Disney Channel.
And give a special

The bird's the word

Thanksgiving. It's almost here. That one day when millions of Americans stuff themselves with turkey, then spend the next several days - or weeks - eating turkey soup, turkey hash and countless other turkey creations until, alas, the bird's gone until next year. Right?

Not according to turkey farmer Andy Volmert, of Westphalia, Mo. "There's an old myth about turkeys that some people still believe. They think turkey is only for Thanksgiving and maybe Christmas, well that's just not true anymore," Volmert said. "The week after Thanksgiving some of my neighbors even say to me, 'Well, I guess you've got nothing to do now with all your turkeys gone,' Volmert said. "My turkeys aren't gone (after Thanksgiving). I raise nearly 10, 000 birds every 11 weeks." So it seems the holidays don't create a drastic change in routine for the modern turkey farmer. Maybe it did long ago when people still purchased live birds, but turkey farming has changed significantly since Grandma had to pluck the Thanksgiving feast. Today, turkeys are big business. "Most people are under contract (to corporations), unless they have very large individual operations. If you're not, you're at the hands of the powers that be," Volmert said.

George Becker, of New Athens, (See BIRD, Page 2C)

OPENING SOON NEW OBSTETRICIAN AND GYNCOLOGIST

Dr. Richard B. Kurzel M.D. will be opening an office in the Executive Park, #2, (Rt. 203 Nameoki extension) at Jct. of I-270, for a practice specializing in Obstetrics, Gynecology, and Infertility.

Dr. Kurzel, who was born and raised in Buffalo, New York, is no stranger to the Mid-West having graduated from the University of Chicago School of Medicine. He did his internship at Harvard University at the Brigham and Women's Hospital. He did his residency at the State University of New York at Buffalo, where he also received gynecology cancer training from the Roswell Park Memorial Institute, also in Buffalo, New York, one of the top 3 leading cancer hospitals in the country. Dr. Kurzel also did a 2-year fellowship in high-risk pregnancies at Tufts University in Boston, Mass., where he also was an assistant professor at the Medical School.

Dr. Kurzel, Board-Certified in obstetrics and gynecology, will be offering the full spectrum of women's health care.

Dr. Kurzel already has an office in Collinsville in the Medical Arts Building, 217 West Clay St.

Bird

Ill., still breeds turkeys individually, but faces tough competition. "You can't compete with the growers and supermarkets anymore. Almost everyone who processes turkeys hatches their own, so you don't sell many—not even breeders," Becker said. "And to sell just one turkey for a dinner would be lucky if you got $10, because the stores can sell them already plucked and dressed for less than that."

Accordingly, grocery stores throughout Illinois and Missouri will run turkey specials prior to Thanksgiving that offer the consumer terrific buys on one of nature's healthiest meats. "When stores sell a turkey for less than 50 cents per pound they're taking a loss on the bird," Volmert said. "They do that to get people into the store which really works to the customer's advantage, because you're guaranteed a fresh bird. The birds sell so fast they don't have a chance to stay in the freezer too long. Freezing a bird for a long period will take away from its natural goodness." Most people would agree that turkeys are nutritious food: low in calories and cholesterol, high in protein—and tasty, too. But what is behind all that plump and juicy goodness?

"T.L.C.—lots of it. If you want to raise perfect turkeys you have to keep them stress free and pampered," Volmert said.

On the Volmert farm, turkeys arrive when they are only one day old, weighing approximately a half pound each. They will be marketed 20 weeks later weighing an average of 30 pounds each. During its stay each bird will consume more than 75 pounds of feed.

"It takes two-and-a-half to three pounds of feed to produce one pound of meat," Volmert said.

That ratio, combined with feed costs, results in a $150,000 investment in each flock by the time it is marketed.

In addition to needing large amounts of feed, young turkeys, called poults, must constantly be kept warm.

"When we first get our birds they are placed in a brood house to keep warm. About 100 poults will fit under each gas brooder. We start with the temperature at 95-degrees and gradually reduce it until the turkeys no longer need the warmth," Volmert said.

Volmert also tries to keep his birds fat and happy by employing such techniques as spraying a fine mist into the brood houses so that the heat doesn't dry out the birds' skin.

But doesn't all this T.L.C. result in genuine affection for the birds, making it harder to market or slaughter them for Thanksgiving dinners?

"I can't kill any of my birds. I get too attached to them," Becker said. "One time I had a gobbler go crazy on me. I opened his coop and out he flew. Hit me in the face, broke my glasses and gave me the prettiest pair of black eyes you ever saw, but I couldn't even kill him. He had been a good bird up to that, so I gave him away."

To Volmert, who raises 50,000 turkeys per year, marketing day, whether it's just before Thanksgiving or in the middle of June, is just another day when his birds "fly the coop."

CRANBERRIES MAKE PIE

Cranberries set the tone

Whether they are served solo or as a tangy addition to other foods, cranberries long have been a tradition at holiday meals. Their distinctively tart flavor, bright red color and good availability this time of year continue to make them a popular choice.

These dessert pies are one delicious way to show off the abundant cranberry. The slightly tart berries make ideal taste partners with the other sweeter fruits in Cranberry Orange Cream Pie and Cranberry Apricot Apple Pie. Although these recipes call for refrigerated all-ready pie crusts, these picture-perfect pies also can be made with from-scratch pastry according to a favorite recipe.

THE REFRESHINGLY TANGY FILLING of Cranberry Orange Cream Pie is a delicious alternative to some of the heavier, more calorie-laden foods that will be set on the table during the season. Orange juice and peel lend the citrus flavor, while cranberries, chopped by hand, in a blender or in a food processor, add a bit of tartness and color to the creamy filling.

For a festive garnish, arrange orange slices and a few whole cranberries atop the pie's fluffy filling.

A luscious blend of tart cranberries with mellow apricots and apples makes up the filling of Cranberry Apricot Apple Pie. A little cinnamon and orange peel complement the tri-fruit mixture, which is enclosed in a two-crust pie.

Add a decorative touch to the top crust by cutting the slits for the steam vents in an attractive pattern or by using small cookie cutters to make the vents.

VARY GLAZE ON ONIONS

Onions served with the turkey

Here is a guest-pleasing dinner that adds excitement for fall and winter menus. Orange-Glazed Onions attractively garnish a plump roast turkey, which has been stuffed with a savory bread dressing. To round out the menu, serve a tangy, fruited slaw and parsley-buttered carrots.

For a holiday dinner, give the golden-toned entrée a festive look by changing to a cranberry or apricot-cherry glaze for the onions. A large chicken also may be roasted in place of the turkey.

A small turkey like this will thaw in its bag in the refrigerator in 1½ to 2 days. Allow 2½ or even 4 days, according to the size of the bird.

When ready to bake the bird, free the legs and tail from the tucked portions. Remove all giblets. Truss the turkey and drain well.

Stuff the neck and body cavities lightly. Return the tail and legs to a tucked position. Skewer neck skin to back.

Place turkey, breast-side up, on rack in shallow, open pan. Do not add water or cover it. A meat thermometer should not touch a bone, but rest in the center of the thigh next to the body.

A turkey should reach 180° to 185° in the thigh to be done. The center of the stuffing should be 160° to 165°. Meat on the thigh and drumstick should feel soft. Juices that flow at a prick in the thigh should not be pink. Let a turkey stand 15 to 20 minutes outside the oven for easier carving.

Onion Stuffing

1 small turkey (6 to 8 lb.) or 1 large chicken

Salt and pepper
Savory Onion Stuffing

Sprinkle cavity of turkey with salt and pepper. Fill with Savory Onion Stuffing. Place in shallow baking pan, breast-side up.

Bake according to directions on wrap, or about 2 hours at 375° or until done.

Place onions in oven to glaze during last 20 to 25 minutes of roasting time.

Baste turkey with pan juices occasionally and allow to rest 15 minutes before serving. Savory Onion Stuffing: Saute 3 cups chopped sweet onions and ¼ cup diced celery in ½ cup butter or margarine until tender.

Combine with 6 cups toasted bread cubes or unseasoned stuffing mix, ½ cup chopped parsley.

(See ONIONS, Page 4C)

• Cranberries—

- 3 egg whites
- 1 tsp. cream of tartar
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup whipping cream

Prepare pie crust according to package directions for unfilled one-crust pie using 9-inch pie pan. Bake at 450° for 9 to 11 minutes or until lightly browned. Cool.

In medium saucepan, combine 2½ cup sugar and gelatin. Stir in water, orange juice and cranberries. Cook over medium heat until mixture comes to a boil, stirring constantly.

Remove from heat. Stir in orange peel.

Refrigerate until slightly thickened, about 30 minutes.

In small bowl, beat egg whites and cream of tartar until frothy. Gradually add ½ cup sugar, beating until stiff peaks form.

Fold in cooled cranberry mixture.

In small bowl, beat whipping cream until stiff peaks form. Fold into cranberry mixture.

Spoon into baked pie crust. Refrigerate at least 1 hour before serving.

Garnish as desired.

Makes 8 servings.

Cran-Apri pie

- 1 (15 oz.) pkg. refrigerated pie crusts
- 1 tsp. flour
- 2 cups water
- 1 cup whole dried apricots
- 4 cups sliced, peeled apples
- 1 cup fresh or frozen cranberries, thawed and drained
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 tbsp. cornstarch
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- ½ to 1 tsp. grated orange peel
- 2 tbsp. margarine or butter

Prepare pie crust according to package directions for two-crust pie.

In medium saucepan, bring water to a boil; remove from heat. Add apricots; let stand 5 minutes. Drain well.

In large bowl, combine apples, cornstarch, cinnamon and orange peel; toss lightly.

Spoon apple mixture into pie crust-lined pan. Dot with margarine. Top with second crust and flute edges; cut slits in several places.

Bake at 425° for 30 to 40 minutes or until apples are tender. Cool at least 1 hour before serving.

Makes 8 servings.

Tip: Cover edge of pie crust with strip of foil during last 10 to 15 minutes of baking if necessary to prevent excessive browning.

Short treats neat from around the kitchen

Striped delight

- 1 1/2 cups graham cracker crumbs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter or margarine, melted
1 pkg. (8 oz.) cream cheese, softened
1/2 cup sugar
2 tsp. milk
3/4 cup whipped topping
2 pkg. (4-serving size) chocolate instant pudding (See Note)
3 1/2 cups cold milk

Note: Or use 1 package (16-serving size) instant pudding and 2 1/2 cups cold milk.
Combine crumbs, 1/2 cup sugar and melted butter. Press firmly into bottom of 13-by-9 inch pan. Chill.

Beat cream cheese with 1/2 cup sugar and 2 tablespoons milk until smooth. Fold in half the whipped topping. Spread over crust.

Using 3/4-cups cold milk, prepare pudding as directed on package. Pour over cream cheese layer. Chill several hours or overnight.

Shortly before serving, spread remaining whipped topping over pudding. Garnish with grated chocolate or nuts, if desired.
Makes 15 servings.

Tip: Try Striped Delight in pistachio, lemon and butterscotch flavors.

over high heat until reduced by half.
Return patties to pan and cook 1 to 2 minutes.

Sprinkle parsley over patties.
Makes 4 servings.

Beef for two

- 1 lb. beef top round
1 can (8 oz.) sliced pineapple in juice
1 tsp. cornstarch
1/2 cup chopped sweet pickle
2 tsp. soy sauce
1/2 cup water
2 cups water
1 small green pepper, seeded and very thinly sliced
1 small tomato, cut in eighths and seeded
Hot cooked brown rice

Slice beef in thin strips. (Partial freezing makes slicing easier).

Drain pineapple, reserving juice.

Blend together cornstarch and reserved juice. Add pickle, soy sauce, ginger root and juice mixture to wok. Cook until mixture boils and thickens. Reduce heat, add beef strips and mix. Remove to heat-proof plate.

If desired, recipe can be prepared ahead up to this point. To enhance flavor of beef, marinate in cooked soy sauce mixture 1 to 2 hours.

Bring water to boil in wok. Elevate plate above water with steamer rack or overturned bowl. Cover and steam beef dish 3 to 4 minutes. Stir mixture well.

Place pineapple, green pepper and tomato slices over beef. Cover; steam an additional 2 to 3 minutes.

Serve over brown rice.
Makes 2 servings.

Sangria Sundaes

- 1 can (8 1/2 oz.) chunk pineapple in syrup
2 tsp. cornstarch
1/2 cup red wine
2 tsp. frozen lemonade concentrate
1 tsp. grated orange peel
1 orange, peeled and chunked
Vanilla ice cream

Drain pineapple, mixing syrup with cornstarch.
Bring wine and lemonade concentrate to boil in wok. Boil rapidly 2 minutes until slightly reduced.

Add pineapple syrup mixture and orange peel. Stir and cook until thickened.

Add pineapple and orange chunks; heat through.
Serve warm over vanilla ice cream.
Makes 2 servings.

Rumballs

- 4 cups vanilla wafer crumbs
1/2 cup (about) coconut
1 cup finely chopped nuts
1 can (14 oz.) sweetened condensed milk
1/2 cup rum or 1/2 cup water and 1 tsp. rum extract
Confectioner's sugar

Combine crumbs, coconut and nuts in bowl. Stir in condensed milk and rum, mixing well.

Shape into 1-inch balls. Roll in confectioner's sugar to coat.
Cover and store in refrigerator. Roll again in sugar just before serving.
Makes 6 dozen.

Note: For best flavor store 24 hours. Candies may be stored several weeks. Recipe may be halved, using 1/2 cup sweetened condensed milk.

Cran Fizz

Combine 1 quart (4 cups) cranberry juice cocktail, 1 cup grapefruit juice, 1 cup orange juice and 1/2 cup sugar. Chill.
Just before serving, add 2 cups chilled ginger ale.
Makes 16 1/2-cup servings.

Onions

- 1 egg, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 2 teaspoons poultry seasoning and 1 1/2 cups hot chicken broth. Mix well.
Makes 6 cups stuffing.

Orange glaze

- 3 medium sweet Spanish onions (2 1/2 to 3 inches in diameter)
1/2 cup honey
1/2 cup orange juice concentrate
1/2 tsp. sherry
2 tsp. butter or margarine
1/2 cup-toasted slivered almonds

Peel onions. Cut in half crosswise. Place in large skillet or kettle with 1 inch boiling salted water. Cover and simmer 15 minutes or until onions are barely tender. Drain.

Place onions in shallow baking dish.

Combine juice concentrate, sherry, honey and butter in small saucepan. Bring to boil. Spoon over onions.

Bake with turkey during last 15 to 20 minutes of roasting time. Basting onions occasionally with glaze accumulated in dish.

Sprinkle onions with toasted almonds before serving.
Makes 6 servings.

SPIRAL PASTA SALAD

Texas flavors cool season

For party hosts everywhere, the challenge in creating a memorable gathering is in selecting an exciting menu, then making the presentation and service appear effortless.

"You make it all look so easy," is the highest accolade a host can receive.

In Texas, where parties are often planned on a grand scale for groups as small as 40 or as large as 16,000, one of the successful caterers is Don Strange, who prepares party food with a unique San Antonio flair.

WORKING CLOSELY WITH A PARTY HOST. Strange creates a special menu that may involve developing a new recipe or two, then plans a dramatic presentation to add a festive feeling. Working outdoors much of the year, Strange's parties are renowned for his friendly fajita makers, colorfully costumed gordinas and tortilla makers and his San Antonio-style party foods.

Pressed for a definition of his style of cooking, Strange explains, "It's a unique style of cooking that draws mainly on the foods and flavors of Mexico and uses all locally available, fresh ingredients. There's a lot of open air cooking over mesquite involved, and occasionally you see hints of Cajun influence. It's really a variation of Tex-Mex cooking."

FOR AUTUMN'S PARTIES. Strange picked up on the nation's passion for pasta and created San Antonio Style Pasta Salad. Prepared with two or three colors of rotini or other favorite pasta, the salad is flecked with mushrooms, olives, celery and green onion. The dressing is a creamy-spicy blend of mayonnaise and picante sauce.

Strange likes to serve the salad in purple, red, yellow or green pepper halves for optional added drama. Ideally prepared at home, the salad is a lively made-ahead accompaniment.

When it comes to serving eggs, Western Omelets are filled with mushrooms, cheese and picante sauce. If the topping sauce has been refrigerated, a quick swirl in the pan used to cook the eggs is recommended to bring it to the desired temperature.

Add combined mayonnaise, picante sauce and cream; mix well. Chill.

Serve in pepper halves, if desired.

Makes about 10 cups salad. Variation: Substitute a favorite pasta for rotini.

UP FOR TWO. Perry Jones of the Granite City Stars basketball team goes up for two of his game-high 23 points in Saturday's 74-69 triumph over Lincolnland College. The Stars are now 2-0 on the season and play in the Forest Park Thanksgiving Invitational this weekend.

Stars defeat Loggers; Jones fuels comeback

By JAMES BLASINGSAME

Staff writer
GRANITE CITY — Keeping up with the Joneses — it's the American way.

Well, try as they might, the Lincolnland College eagles couldn't stay with Jones on Saturday night. That Jones is Perry Jones, the Granite City Campus center who triggered a 13-0 explosion early in the second half and led the Stars to a 74-69 triumph over the Loggers.

After leaving the game midway through the first half with a pair of fouls, Jones started the second half by scoring six points and grabbing three consecutive defensive rebounds in the opening four minutes.

Jones' heroics led the Stars from a 32-30 halftime deficit to a 43-32 lead before the 15:00 mark.

The Loggers didn't break the ice until six minutes of the second half had elapsed, and by that time the Stars, who had looked sluggish in the first period, were rolling.

"We couldn't buy anything the first 10 minutes of the second half," said Logger coach Dick Dhabat.

"That was the ballgame."

Well, almost.

With the Stars ahead 56-41 and under eight minutes remaining, it looked as if the rest of the game would be easy for GCC. As easy as falling off a Logger.

However, Lincolnland kept coming back from the near-dead, using a bothersome full-court zone and some nifty outside shooting to keep pace. The Stars still had the game well in hand at the two-minute mark when Jones' slam gave GCC a 71-59 edge, but the Loggers got a quick hoop to cut the lead to 10.

Then Wali Abdul-Rahim, who led the Loggers with 21 points on the night, canned a pair of free throws and Larry Wilson netted an 18-footer to make it 71-65.

A Logger steal and alley-oop to forward Greg Hills made it 71-67 with 48 seconds to play, and the "Fat Lady" was nowhere to be seen.

After Lincolnland's pressure forced GCC's Jerry Johnson to call timeout, the Stars inbounded the ball and point guard Al Johnson was fouled. Johnson stepped to the line and made the front end of the bonus to kill the Loggers' momentum, and later Kirt Robinson nailed a baseline jumper to seal it for the Stars.

For Granite City coach Terry Collins and the Stars, the Logger game was the season's first real test after the 86-46 blowout of Sanford Brown last Tuesday.

"I thought we were a little flat," Collins said. "We were a little taken out of our game by their execution. They (the Loggers) executed and played hard — that's the first time we've seen that in a game situation."

"They executed better as a team both offensively and defensively. It just came down to the fact that we have more talent."

Talent like Jones. Al Johnson and Reggie Mullens. But what made these talented players come to life in the second half?

"I think we just stated that there

GC matmen open with 3 wins

CARBONDALE — The Granite City wrestling team got the 1985-86 season off on a good note Saturday with three victories here.

The Warriors defeated Carbondale, 46-18, and followed with wins over Edwardsville, 44-12, and Centralia, 66-6.

Warrior grapplers dominated the meet, winning 29 of a possible 36 matches to give Walt Whitaker a fast start in his first year as head coach at the high school.

Seven Warriors won all three of their matches. They were Scott Moss at 112 pounds; Gary Mann at 119; Brett Carner at 126; Tracy Morrison at 132; Chuck Sparks at 138; Dennis Gabriel at 145; and Mike Fengoglio at 167.

Four others won two of three matches, including Brent Davis at 98 pounds; Tom Sparks at 155; Mike Lynch at 185; and Ross Karbarski in the heavyweight class.

Rich Smilie was 0-3 in the 105-pound class.

"It was a good start for us," Whitaker said. "We found some things we need to work on and improve. We had some good performances from our young wrestlers and our veterans gave us good matches, as usual."

"Our pin ratio and takedowns were excellent, so we need to get ready for the tough matches coming up later."

The Warriors are back in action this Saturday at home at 11 a.m. in a meet with Bloomington, Stephen Decatur and Decatur MacArthur.

"It is another early season contest which will give us experience and help us improve and eliminate our mistakes," Whitaker said.

BOYS' CLASS AA

NORMAN BILSBURY, ALTON: Bilsbury took on and beat all competitors until the state meet at Peoria Nov. 16, where he finished ninth. He won the Edwardsville Invitational easily, took an earlier invitational at Peoria and finished first in the Madison County, Southwestern Conference, regional and sectional meets.

At state he ran neck-and-neck with Lake Forest's Jim Gibson before falling back and finishing in 14:50.7, about 22 seconds behind Gibson's winning time.

"It'll be tough to replace Norman (a senior), not only as a runner, but as a kid," said Alton coach Bill Diddleback.

CECIL SHY, LINCOLN: "A little guy with big heart." So describes Lincoln High School boys' cross-country coach Leonard Manley about his top runner.

"He's the type of guy that doesn't mind challenges," Manley said. "In my opinion, he's probably one of the better runners that's been through Lincoln."

Shy finished in the top five in all but his last meet — at the sectional, when he dropped to 69th. "I was hurt, but not as hurt as he was," said Manley.

Shy, a junior, is expected to have an even better season next year. "I have to believe he's going to improve because of his attitude and the way he works," Manley said.

BRIAN BRASHER, MASCOUTAH: Brasher closed out his senior season by placing 59 at state (15:17), eighth in the sectional and third in the regional. He finished second behind teammate Rob Maue in the Mississippi Valley Conference Meet.

"Brian worked during the off-season on a conditioning and nautical program in Belleville at the YMCA," said Brian's father, Mascoutah coach Clyde Brasher. "He always had the endurance, but he developed more strength."

ROB MAUE, MASCOUTAH: A senior, Maue finished 38th in the state meet (15:05), sixth at the sectional and second at the regional. He won the Mattoon Invitational, the St. Clair County Meet and the Mississippi Valley Conference Meet.

"If Brian had a great year," Rob had a fantastic year," said Clyde Brasher. "He matured physically and dropped about 10 pounds at the start of the season. He and Rob came closer together as friends this year. Ten years from now, when there's dust all over the medals in the back of the closet, they'll remember their friendship."

MIKE RANNEY, BELLEVILLE EAST: Ranney placed a disappointing 23rd in the sectional and failed to qualify for state, but he still had an excellent season. He finished ninth in the regional, fourth in the St. Clair County Meet and first in the East Invitational.

SECOND TEAM: Donnell Logan, Lincoln; Robert Williams, Lincoln; Joe Twitchell, Alton; Jesse Robinson, East St. Louis.

JEFF SAPPINGTON, WESCLIN: A junior, Sappington finished 46th at the state meet. He had earlier taken seventh at the Cahokia Conference meet and 19th at the sectional. His best performance of the season was a third place finish at the Red Bud Invitational.

"He worked real hard and wasn't afraid," said Hall. "We'll be looking forward to him as one of our leaders next year."

SECOND TEAM: Albert Willette, Wesclin; John Zawodniak, Freeburg; Cliff Huelsmann, Wesclin; Jim Chappell, Lebanon; Tom Voges, Red Bud.

GIRLS

LORA WISER, GRANITE CITY: The senior was the Warriors' No. 1 runner for four years. She placed second in the regional (11:55), third in the sectional (11:46) and 16th in the state meet at 12:01.8, placing her second in the metro-east area behind Lincoln's Celisa Shy. She was the area's top runner at state as a junior.

"We don't have to worry about Lora, especially late in the season," said Granite City coach Dave McClain. "She always rises to the occasion. She gets stronger and stronger every meet."

CELISA SHY, LINCOLN: The Tigrettes were the class of the area, and Celisa Shy was the class of the Tigrettes. A senior, she broke five course records and her 15th-place finish at state was the highest among Lincoln runners. Her 12:02.5 time was 33 seconds faster than her mark last year at the state meet.

"By far, the year she had was the best performance by a girl at Lincoln," said Tigrette coach Nino Fennoy. "Throughout the year, she did not miss a meet. That's a credit to her durability and attitude throughout the year."

JOAN SIMMONS, LINCOLN: Simmons, a senior, was the Tigrettes' second-leading runner most of the campaign. It was only her second year on the team.

"I thought she made tremendous strides," said Fennoy. Simmons set course records at Granite City and Triad. She also beat Shy at the Springfield meet. The two were fierce rivals and close friends.

"You have good friends and you have buddies, Joan and Celisa were real buddies," Fennoy said. "But it was the kind of friendship a coach wants. They pushed each other to finish first."

SARAH FLEMING, LINCOLN: Fleming placed an astonishing 40th at the state meet — astonishing because she is just a sophomore.

"She's the first sophomore to finish below 50 at state," said Fennoy, who beams at the thought of what she might accomplish in the next two years. "The potential is there for her to do better than some of the other top performers at Lincoln."

MARGUERITA JOHNSON, LINCOLN: A senior, Johnson took over the team workouts during the one-day East St. Louis teachers' strike. The team couldn't have been placed in better hands.

"She basically led the workouts and served as the unofficial team captain," said Fennoy. Johnson left a blazing trail at the state meet. Her 60th-place showing was 40 places better than her performance at state in 1984.

SECOND TEAM: Andrea Taylor, Lincoln; Chrissie Collins, Lincoln; Tina Munoz, Lincoln; Sheila Noel, Granite City.

Watch out for deer

By LOUISE MILLER
and ANDREA KANE
Illinois DDC

Deer-auto collisions dramatically increase this time of year because it is the peak of rutting or mating season for deer and also harvest time.

During rutting season, the white-tailed buck may not be as alert to the danger of incoming cars and trucks as he would be normally. Rutting season generally lasts from October through December. At this time, bucks are concentrating on their primary goal of mating with six to eight does. The doe comes into heat for 24-hour periods at 28-day intervals. And while the buck is running the doe, he will be in a highly excited state.

Normally, white-tailed deer feed on leaves, twigs, seeds and grasses. But in Illinois, they have adapted well to living near humans, which means they have learned to love corn and beans. As these crops are harvested, deer are routed from their normal territories. They often will be on the move at dawn and dusk — their habitual feeding time.

Since rut and harvest are natural and necessary activities that can not be stopped, take extra precautions while driving. Be more alert for deer at the edge of the road and drive more slowly. Favorite road crossings may be near wooded areas, creeks and drainage systems.

Deer often travel in groups of two or three, so if one crosses safely in front of your car, you should expect more to follow. If the deer sees you, don't assume he will stop or change direction. If the deer is standing in the road, don't assume that he will run off the road as you approach. Always remember that headlights can temporarily blind and confuse a deer.

If a deer darts in front of your car, it is important to hold firm your headlights to reduce the chances of the animal being temporarily blinded by the car lights. Then reduce your speed by gently pumping the brakes. Take evasive action if necessary, but be aware that one of the most serious deer-auto mishaps can occur when a frightened whitetail leaps to avoid an approaching car and puts its hooves through the windshield.

If it appears impossible to avoid the deer without losing control of the car, it is better to go ahead and hit the animal. Though damage to the car may be extensive (an average of $340 per collision), injuries to drivers and passengers are rare.

Whitetails are not so lucky. In virtually all of the more than 2,000 deer-auto collisions recorded in Illinois annually, the deer is killed.

If we are particularly careful and heed the deer warning signs on state and country highways, we may avoid the needless loss of wildlife this fall.

SIUE women seeking big year

EDWARDSVILLE — With eight returning letterwinners back in the fold for the 1985-86 season, including four starters, the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville women's basketball team could have one of the best seasons in its 12-year history.

The Cougars will not only be looking to improve on last year's 14-11 record, their first winning campaign since 1977-78, but also have their sights set on becoming the first SIUE basketball team to receive a bid to the NCAA Division II post-season tournament.

Returning standouts Mia Shihli, Barbie Drew, Lori Blade, Ranae Harris and Barb Straker, who were the top five scorers last season, will be joined by Carol Kline, who sat out the past two seasons with a knee injury after leading the Cougars in scoring as a freshman. The combination of experienced veterans like Joanne Apida and Alicia Collins, along with junior college transfers Betsy Menke and Tina Rich, should provide the Cougars with depth and versatility to complement an already proven scoring attack, with a strong backcourt and solid inside game.

Adding up all the elements: experienced veterans, the return of the top five scorers and top three rebounders, better quality players coming off the bench, improved quickness and good size, there is reason for optimism.

"We have a well-rounded, experienced team this year, and we are further along in practices than we were last year at this time," said SIUE Head Coach Wendy Hedberg. "I feel that if everyone plays up to (her) potential and we can execute the basic fundamentals without making mental mistakes, we should have an outstanding year."

The following is a rundown of the 1985-86 SIUE women's basketball team, position by position:

CENTERS

Joanne Apida, a six-foot senior from River Grove, Ill., was a part-time starter last season and should see plenty of action as the starting center for the 1985-86 Cougars.

Last year, Apida connected on 36 of 72 field goal attempts and averaged 3.2 points per game. She also averaged 2.7 rebounds per game and Coach Hedberg feels she will improve on those figures this year.

With only one true center on the team, Cougars fans will often see a quick, fast-breaking attack with transfers Tina Rich and Yvonne Littleton anchoring the middle from the familiar forward position. Rich, a 5-10 junior, was an All-Region selection at Belleville Area Community College last year, netting 14 points and 10 rebounds per game. She has a good outside shot and is a strong rebounder. She will be used primarily as a forward, but will also see action at center.

Littleton, who earned a spot on the roster as a walk-on, is a transfer from Park College. She is also a strong rebounder, as well as a good defensive player.

FORWARDS

Returning starters Barbie Drew and Ranae Harris again provide the Cougars with a strong frontcourt attack. Considered one of the best forwards in the region, Drew was chosen co-captain of the team for the second consecutive year. In her first season with the Cougars, she led the team in scoring, netting 15.8 points per game and was second on the team in rebounds (7.4 per contest), assists (5.3) and steals (4.7).

Harris, a 5-10 junior, led the team in rebounding for the second consecutive season and enters the 1985-86 season with 355, seventh on the SIUE all-time career list. She also has a good shot, averaging 8.8 points per game as a freshman, and nine per outing last season.

Newcomer Betsy Menke and veteran Barb Straker, a junior who played in all 25 games last year, will provide Coach Hedberg with a deep and experienced frontline. Straker was third in rebounding last season with 6.9 per game. She also pumped in 6.7 points per game in 1984-85. Menke, who averaged 10.8 points and six rebounds per game at BACC last year, was a first team All-Region selection.

GUARDS

A host of experienced guards will key the Cougar offensive attack, with the catalyst of the team, co-captain Mia Smith, returning to the point, and Carol Kline, Lori Blade and Alicia Collins sharing playing time at shooting guard. Kline led the team in scoring as a freshman, averaging 14.3 points per game, but has missed the past two seasons with a knee injury. If she can stay healthy, she'll be a scoring threat. Smith is an excellent offensive playmaker who led the team in assists last season with 9.7 and steals with 6.3. She has a zone-breaking outside shot, leading the team in scoring in 1983-84, and registering 9.1 points per game last year. Blade is expected to return to the starting lineup this season. Last year, she tied for second on the team in scoring average (9.1) and third in assists with 4.0. Collins should also see plenty of action. In only 11 games last year, she averaged 5.4 points and 5.6 rebounds. A pair of walk-ons, Amy Erwin and Laura McCune, will also provide depth.

GC parks seek instructor

The Granite City Park District is accepting applications for an instructor for their Saturday morning basketball program for youth in grades 3 through 6. All interested applicants must reside within the Granite City Park District. Applications may be picked up at the Wilson Park office and returned as soon as possible. More information can be obtained by calling the Wilson Park office at 877-3059.

MAC basketball signups Monday

The Mitchell Athletic Club will be holding signups for basketball next Monday, Dec. 2, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Mitchell School, 316 E. Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell.

Children in third through sixth grade may sign up for the basketball leagues, which will begin play in January. The fee for registration is $12 and players will receive a jersey they can keep.

Games will be played on Mondays and Tuesdays.

Stars win again

was a challenge in front of them (the Stars)," Collins said. "Their team (Lincolnland) exposed one of our weaknesses, which is ball handling, and we had to respond to the challenge. That's what it's all about."

For most of the first half the Stars were a step behind the Loggers on defense. Numerous times Lincolnland sent cutters through the lane for easy buckets against GC's man-to-man defense. Late in the first half and for the remainder of the contest, the Stars used a zone and had better success in keeping the Loggers outscored.

"(At halftime) Coach told us we had to come back and play more defense," said Jones, who was the game's leading scorer with 23. "We knew that team wouldn't lay down. They press (defensively) and we were going to be in trouble if we didn't do our offense right."

But the Stars did run their offense well enough to win. And it was Jones who led the way in the second half.

"He (Jones) was a force for the first seven minutes of the second half," said Collins. "He came in and did a good job."

When Jones went to the bench with two fouls in the first half, his replacement, Jeff Pieper, contributed two offensive rebound buckets and three GC efforts. Besides Jones, other top scorers for the Stars were Mullens, who scored 13 points, and Al Johnson, who added 10.

GC will play in the Forest Park Thanksgiving Invitational Tournament this weekend.
